

IMS POLICY

(ISO 9001:2015, ISO 14001:2015, ISO 45001:2018)

DBOT Realty Pvt Ltd is dedicated to offering its customers and consumers high-quality products.

To achieve this, DBOT Realty will-

- Understand the consumer needs and provide high-performance, safe, and reliable products by complying with legal and regulatory requirements.
- Maintaining consistent quality standards and providing exceptional customer support service.
- Improving quality management systems and quality assurance processes on a continuous basis.
- Promote learning through training and sharing of experiences and best practices, including with contractors, customers, and the public wherever required.
- Recognizing that all employees have responsibility towards their own safety and actions which could affect the safety of others.
- Protecting the environment for the benefit of all stakeholders and ensuring the occupational health and safety of all employees.
- Continuous training for all employees to improve the process and hold everyone accountable for quality, environmental, Health and safety.
- DBOT Realty provides a framework for setting and reviewing quality, environmental, OH&S objectives, and targets.
- Allocating resources for adoption of appropriate technologies for quality improvement, pollution control, prevention of accidents and occupational illness.
- Committed to the protection of environment, preventing pollution, minimizing waste & conservation of resources by using eco-friendly materials in our operation, eliminate hazards and reduce OH&S risks.
- DBOT Realty is committed to the consultation & participation of workers & employees.
- DBOT Realty is committed to continual improvement of the Integrated management system.

We shall communicate this policy to all staff, contractors and suppliers, stakeholders and review its adequacy, effectiveness, and suitability at all levels of the organization.

Date: 06 October 2023

Sign: